

Curriculum Vitae

The Peace Angels have spread their message of peace, performing and holding peace vigils throughout the world:

Angels of Hope, India— 2017

The Peace Angels have recently returned from Southern India where they performed their new production Angels of Hope to thousands of people in Vellore, Tamil Nadu. Children squealed with joy each time the wings were extended and adults cried as they felt the waves of peace and love coming from the performers and the production. It was reported in the Southern India press as an exquisite offering for Global Peace.

World Parliament of Religions, Salt Lake City — 2015

The Peace Angels were invited to Salt Lake City, Utah in October 2015 to perform at the Parliament of World Religions. We presented a 30-minute performance for delegates several times throughout the 5-day conference.

Lindt Siege Vigil, Sydney— 2015

As part of the annual Christmas Walk in 2015, The Peace Angels were given the opportunity to pay their respects by way of a gentle performance in Martin Place, Sydney Australia, at the site of the Lindt Cafe attack. The Peace Angels offered flowers and comfort to hundreds of people and also performed their Peace Prayer for all of the mourners at the site.

Sydney Christmas Walk, Sydney — 2012-2016

The Peace Angels walk through Sydney CBD each year at Christmas time, offering love and peace to the people of Sydney.

Sydney Peace Day Festival, Sydney — 2014

The Peace Angels performed at the inaugural Sydney Peace Day Festival in 2014, performing their Peace Invocation on the main stage.

A Gift of Peace, Ireland — 2013

The Peace Angels travelled to Ireland and Northern Ireland in September 2013. Peace Angels Ambassador, Sarah Jane Coombe Brahman Kyrie, met the Irish Taoiseach, Enda Kenny, in 2012 who suggested the Peace Angels come to Ireland to spread the message of peace.

The Peace Angels visited Dublin, Galway and Londonderry Derry. On 21 September, the International Day of Peace, we walked through Londonderry Derry in Northern Ireland and then travelled on to Dublin.

The Angels were met with open hearts and many people expressed gratitude to us for being there to celebrate and honour the immense work that has been done in bringing peace to this beautiful country in the past 20 years.

Bodhi Festival, Newcastle, Australia — 2012

The Peace Angels were a highlight of the inaugural Bodhi Festival in Newcastle in February 2012. The Angels participated in the opening ceremony of the Festival including the Peace Walk through the city of Newcastle from Newcastle Beach to the Abode of Peace located in the former David Jones Department Store on Hunter Street Mall.

Throughout the weekend, the Peace Angels appeared live in the windows of the Abode of Peace, helped to anchor the energy of Peace throughout the Festival and offered blessings to everyone who stopped by the Peace Angels stall on the ground floor.

Walking Light, Sydney — 2011

The Peace Angels first appearance and first major performance featured over 100 performers including Angels, musicians and representatives from religious communities.

A highlight was the offering of the World Peace Flame to the audience to spread the light of peace throughout the city. The performance traversed the length of Hyde Park culminating in a celebration of peace at the Archibald Fountain where prayers from many traditions were shared and the joy of living in a peaceful city such as Sydney was affirmed.
